The Maine Election.

The vote in Maine shows an increase in the Republican vote of 15 and in the Democratic of 31 per cent. The result is not only encouraging in the marked decrease in the Republican majority, but as evidence of the fact that the voters are thoroughly alive to the situation.

Four years ago, with the gold Democrats not voting or solidly aligned against him, and the full strength of the Independent vote thrown to Mr. McKinley. Mr. Bryan succeeded in securing 49 per cent. of the total popular vote cast. This year Judge Parker will have not only the great mass of the Bryan vote in his favor, but 90 per cent. of that cast by the gold Democrats in 1900 and an equal division, if not a decided majority, of the independent vote.

The campaign has been proceeding so quietly that there seemed reason for belief that the full voting strength of the country would not be polled, the loss in this event falling on Judge Parker, as his opponent would marshal the whole force of the Federal machine, and the regular Republican vote. The result of the gubernatorial election in Maine dissipates that fear.

THE Republicans admit the increased cost of running the Government under the present extravagant administration, but claim that it is necessary, as the growth of the country demands it. But the cost per capita should not increase faster than the population increases, as it should be relatively cheaper to run an eighty million country than one with forty millions of people; but the cost is increasing at a much greater ratio than the population, which shows extravagance and waste of the people's money.

ALL the Cabinet officers have left Washington and the work of the departments seems to run along just as well as if they were present. Cabinet officers appear to be only useful for about sixty days when a campaign is on, and if they don't do any better service on the stump than Shaw and Wilson, their services could be dispensed with altogether to the advantage of the Republican party.

THE news from Oyster Bay is of a very contradictory character. It is given out daily that President Roosevelt will not interfere in New York politics. In the same breath it is declared that about all of the leading politicians have been invited to come and "talk it over."

DEFIANCE of law is a marked characteristic of the Roosevelt Administration. The latest defier is Postmaster General Payne, who refuses to appear in court as a witness when summoned to do so by the proper officer.

Refused to Vacate.

When the case of Mrs. Arabella Marcum against Judge James Hargis, Senator Alex. Hargis, Ed. Callahan and B. F. French for $100,000 damages for conspiring to kill her husband, was called at Winchester Monday, Judge Hargis filed an affidavit to the effect that Judge Benton would not give him a fair trial. Judge Benton refused to vacate his bench.
